

MUSIC TO BE FOREMOST IN SOCIETY AFFAIRS DURING THE COMING WEEK

MUSIC will again be foremost in the interest of social El Paso for the coming week, with the grand opera concert to be given by the El Paso grand opera company, on Monday night, and the production of selections from the oratorio, "Ruth," by Cowen, given by the music department of the First Christian church. There will be no meeting of the club on Wednesday, as the evening program will be the only Women's club affair of the week.

The women's Lyric club of El Paso elected officers at a meeting Friday night held in the studio of Mr. and Mrs. Parvin White. Mrs. White was elected president; Mrs. Henry Clay Greer, vice president; Miss Margaretta Pratt, secretary; Mrs. Frank M. M. Librarian; Mrs. Disney Smith, chairman of the telephone committee; Mrs. Fred E. Eimerz, Mrs. Ray K. Smith and Miss Virginia Burk, committee members. Monday night was decided upon for the weekly rehearsals. Harriet Ware's "Lullaby" is the director and the rehearsals will begin on January 21. There are 25 women in the club. Mrs. White will be the accompanist. There will be a number of card club meetings during the week. Mrs. Elise Albro will entertain the Elise club Monday. Mrs. William McSain will be the hostess of the Elise club on Tuesday. Mrs. E. R. Draves will entertain the Wednesday Needlework club on Wednesday and the same day Mrs. John T. Cain will entertain the Wednesday Needlework club. Mrs. A. Danielson will be the hostess for the Thursday Embroidery club Thursday. Mrs. C. F. Holzwarth will entertain the members of the Elise club on Thursday and on the same day Mrs. A. J. Fraser will entertain the Goodbye Tyme Bridge club.

The Young Women's Christian association members are going to present a "concert" on Friday night in the downtown rooms of the association that is going to be a very novel affair. The girls of the association will have all the stunts of the show, which will include slide shows, trained animals, clowns and a funny band, and as the audience will be limited to girls only, some very jolly stunts will be performed.

Another event of general interest is the first birthday anniversary party of the El Paso Equal Franchise League, which will be held Thursday night in the chamber of commerce. A unique program will be given, although the affair will be quite informal. The party is open to everyone who may be interested in the work of the league.

A great amount of interest is connected with the annual ball of El Maida, which will be given Tuesday night in the Toltice club house. The Shriners dances are always very delightful affairs and are greatly enjoyed by the El Paso Masons and their friends.

Mrs. C. E. Bryan will entertain with a Southern tea on Tuesday for the wives of the Southern Methodist ministers in the chamber of commerce. K. Campbell, W. P. Packard and Hubert M. Smith.

On Thursday night there will be the usual dance of the West Yata Country club, and on Saturday night the week end dance of the El Paso Country club.

Saturday Miss Lucile Smith will entertain the Saturday Luncheon Bridge club and Mrs. R. C. Walshe will give a bridge party.

There will be a dance Wednesday night in the Progress club rooms given by a group of women of the aid society of Temple Mt. Sinai.

Receptions. Clyde V. Nafe, who has been the superintendent of the Calvary-Houston Square Baptist Sunday school for the past nine years, was given a reception Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Howard, on Montana street, by the members of the Sunday school and church. Quantities of red white and pink carnations were used throughout the room. D. R. Wade, the incoming superintendent of the Sunday school, Percy McGhee, superintendent of the Westminster Presbyterian Sunday school, and Rev. J. J. Wade, making the speech of appreciation of Mr. Nafe's work. A silver loving cup was presented to Mr. Nafe from the Sunday school. F. A. Hodge making the speech of presentation. Little Evelyn Howard and Betty Mae Morris carried the lovely carnations to the church. The school orchestra played several selections. Punch was served throughout the evening by Misses Alce Emerson, Florence Robertson, Mary Nafe and Mildred Bishop. Hot chocolate and cake were served later in the evening by the girls of the Philanth class.

El Pasoans Away. Richard F. Jorjes left this morning for Washington, D. C., on a short business trip. Miss Nellie May Rowen leaves today for the Marlborough School for Girls in Los Angeles, to continue her studies, after spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen.

Women's Organizations.

The general aid society of the First Methodist church was entertained Friday afternoon by Circle number one, at the church. A short business session of the society was held with the president, Mrs. A. L. Foote, presiding. After the business session there was a musical program. Mrs. W. W. Pink was in charge. Piano solos were played by Miss Clara White and Miss Laura White. A buffet luncheon was served by the hostesses. There were about 100 present.

Fifteen of the young women of the First Baptist church met Friday night at the home of Mrs. J. F. Williams, 1005 Muscatine avenue, and organized a young women's auxiliary. After enjoying dinner together, a nominating committee was appointed to select the class officers. On this committee are Misses Jewel Deet, Vera Hunt and Pearl Reddingfield. The next meeting will be held in February and the committee to arrange for this is composed of Misses Nell Taylor, Dove Husband, Pearl Reddingfield, Beth Reddingfield, Ruth Reddingfield, Beth Luther, Irene Plunkin, Vera Hunt, Vera Morris, Christine Cavin, Alice Blahop, Isabelle Springer, Lucile Williams and Mrs. J. F. Williams.

The presentation of the Confederate flag to the John C. Brown camp of United Confederate veterans will be the principal feature of the observance of the birthday anniversary of the Confederate leaders. Gen. Robert E. Lee and Gen. "Stonewall" Jackson, by the Robert E. Lee chapter of the United Confederate veterans, which will be held the night of Wednesday, January 19, in the Elks' club house. The flag will be presented to the camp on behalf of the chapter and it will be received by Capt. H. P. Stacy on behalf of the veterans.

Musical numbers will be given. Miss Julia Mallow, the historian of the chapter, will be in charge. The program will include a piano solo. Judge Dan Jackson will give an address on Lee and Jackson. The program will be given by the chapter. The program will include a piano solo. Judge Dan Jackson will give an address on Lee and Jackson. The program will be given by the chapter.

Miss Mary Kelly, of the high school, and Miss Hazel Vivian Allen, of the high school, were the winners of the annual essay contest of the daughters of the American revolution. The topic for the essay was "Our Pioneer Ancestors." The winners were given prizes by the chapter. The program will include a piano solo. Judge Dan Jackson will give an address on Lee and Jackson. The program will be given by the chapter.

The Missionary society of the East El Paso Methodist church met at the church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. Gilbert read the Bible lesson. Rev. H. P. Bond led the prayer. A leaflet about mission work was read by Mrs. O'Brien. The officers for the new year were installed by Rev. H. P. Bond. The officers are Mrs. J. L. Gilbert, president; Mrs. W. W. Poole, first vice president; Mrs. G. H. Smith, second vice president; Mrs. Freda Gelsinger, secretary; and Mrs. L. Hill, treasurer. The Missionary society of the New Mexico conference, gave a talk on the duties of the office and the duties of the superintendent of social service and of publicity. Mrs. W. D. Cunningham presented a paper on "The Duties of the Office." It was decided to have two meetings a month, one for business, to be held at the church on the second Thursday in the month, and a social on the fourth Thursday, to be held at some member's home. The study of the mission book, "The King's Highway," will be conducted at the social meetings. A member gaining credit was begun under the leadership of Mrs. F. E. Rowe and Mrs. J. L. Smith. There were 19 present, including as visitors Miss Ora Crosswhite, Mrs. Hubert M. Smith, and Mrs. James Newell. Following the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. W. O'Brien and Mrs. G. Gelsinger.

The Army. Lieut. and Mrs. Alexander Day Surles of the 15th cavalry, are the parents of a baby son, born Friday at Manila, Philippine Islands. The baby has been named Alexander Day Surles, Jr. Mrs. Surles was formerly Miss Anne Lee Gaines and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Oberlin of El Paso. Her marriage to Lieut. Surles last year was one of the brilliant social affairs of the season.

Col. Alfred Haskinck, the new commander of the 39th infantry, and his sister, Mrs. Peter Hulme, were the guests of honor at a delightful dinner-farce, given Thursday night in the ball room of the Hotel Paso del Norte by the officers of the 26th infantry. Dinners, Luncheons, Teas.

Miss Sadie Bryegen entertained with a dinner Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock at her home on 519 Prospect avenue. The guests were Misses Mary Lee, Thelma Harding, Catherine Fletcher, and the boys were Foster Wright, Robert Scott, Claude Billings and Edwin Harding. Carnations and ferns decorated the table. After the dinner, the guests played bridge. Miss Thelma Harding won the first prize and Claude Billings won the second prize.

Miss Mary Dewey and Miss Ruth Dewey were the hostesses at a delightful afternoon tea, given at their home on Nevada street, in honor of the January graduating class of the high school. The guests were received by the Misses Dewey and Miss Katherine Foster. The decorations carried out a Japanese idea. Japanese vases used in the living room with large yellow chrysanthemums and cherry blossoms in Japanese vases. Mrs. William E. Orr poured tea at a prettily decorated table. In the center was a miniature Japanese garden, surrounded with pink candles in crystal sticks, tied with pink tulle bows. Candles and flowers were about the room.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. L. Dewey, the mother of the hostesses, Mrs. George Orr and Miss Frances Foster.

BEST FOR LIVER, BOWELS, STOMACH, HEADACHE, COLDS

They live the liver and bowels and straighten you right up.

Don't be bilious, constipated, sick, with breath bad and stomach sour.

Tonight sure! Take Cascarets and enjoy the most, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up with your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right and feeling fine. Get rid of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, furred tongue, sour stomach, bad colds. Clear your skin, brighten your eyes, quicken your step and feel like doing a full day's work. Cascarets are better than salts, pills or calomel because they don't shock the liver or gripe the bowels or cause inconvenience all the next day. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious, feverish children a whole Cascaret anytime as they can not injure the thirty feet of tender bowels.—Adv.
